

Local and Personal

E. L. Godbe returned to Salt Lake last Monday morning.

E. E. Stone, son of E. D. Stone, has arrived from Cisco, Utah.

J. O. McIntosh was up from Caliente over Wednesday night on business.

Mrs. D. P. Sullivan is enjoying a visit with her mother in Salt Lake this week.

A. D. Knowlton, the mining engineer, has gone to Searchlight on professional business.

Joseph S. Free, one of the directors of the Pioche King mine, arrived last evening from Salt Lake.

L. Scherzinger of the Pioche Mercantile company, has gone to Salt Lake on a brief business trip.

G. F. Hurlburt of Mercur, Utah, has arrived in camp and may conclude to locate here permanently.

J. L. Bowman has gone to the coast for a few weeks rest and recuperation. He will visit Los Angeles and San Francisco before returning.

Mrs. D. L. Underwood, wife of Secretary Underwood of the Pioche Mercantile company, have arrived from Salt Lake.

Mrs. John R. Cook has returned from Los Angeles where she saw her son and daughter, Chester and Caddie, located in school.

Nothing but bonded Whiskies carried at the Alamo.

Fitzgerald Boy Ill.
Floyd, 11-year old son of Deputy Sheriff Fitzgerald, is suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis and Dr. Duckworth, who is attending him, says an operation may be necessary.

Goodrich Sells Out.
H. J. Goodrich has sold his residence property on Panaca Flat and is preparing to leave with his family for the coast sometime next week. The Goodriches have been residents of this camp for a great many years and they have a host of friends who regret to see them leave.

Show Coming.
The Colonial Theater company of Salt Lake has engaged Thompson's Opera house for five nights, beginning October 19th with the Colonial Costume play, "In Valley Forge," with a change of performance each night. This is a first class company and will no doubt be a treat to the people of the district. The advance sale of seats will begin in a few days.

The best is the cheapest. It costs less to get the best Whiskies in Pioche at the Alamo.

Squire Is Free.
Just before Judge Brown ordered an adjournment of the autumn term of the district court last Saturday, he took up the divorce case of J. Frank Squire Jr. vs Anna Squire. Suit was brought against the defendant on the ground of desertion. Anna failing to answer and a decree was entered in accordance with the prayer of the complainant.

WELL STILL DRY.

Difficulties Encountered By Contractor Stone On New Atlanta Road.

E. D. Stone, the contractor on the new Atlanta road, was in town this week and reported that the Craw Creek well had been sunk 90 feet without striking water. Indications, however, were favorable when he left the well to come to town for a load of supplies. The ground is getting more moist and Mr. Stone feels confident that he is getting close to a water course.

Several light rigs have traveled the new route to the gold camp during the past week, but until the watering places are finished, the Wilson Creek route will be utilized the most.

Social Happenings

Ronnow-Redford Nuptials.

On Thursday evening of last week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ronnow at Panaca, the marriage of their daughter, Josephine, to Mr. H. B. Redford, took place. Attending the bridal couple, was Miss Edna Wadsworth and Mr. Dan Ronnow, brother of the bride.

Shortly after 8 o'clock, the bridal party took their place under the beautiful arch which had been constructed in the parlor for the occasion. Here the short and simple, but effective ceremony was performed by Mr. Lee of Panaca. Following this, and the congratulations of the many relatives and friends, a bounteous supper was served in the dining room. The decorations were pink and white asters; while a wedding cake of unusual proportions stood in the center of the table.

The bride wore a gown of ivory white and a bridal veil fastened with a wreath of myrtle. She carried a large bouquet of pale pink carnations and looked the picture of sweet and wholesome young womanhood.

Having lived all her life in Panaca—with the exception of some years of schooling at Provo—Mrs. Redford was popular among the younger set of Panaca and neighboring towns and attracted to herself a host of friends by her sunny disposition.

Mr. Redford is a rising young lawyer, who has established a business at Heyburn, Idaho.

The best of wishes of their many relatives and friends follow the young people to their new home.

Mrs. A. A. Carman was hostess Tuesday evening at a whist party given in honor of Mr. Carman, the occasion being the latter's birthday. It was the intention to make the affair a surprise on Mr. Carman, but somehow he ascertained that something was going to happen; hence was not entirely taken unawares.

Twelve tables were played, after which elaborate refreshments were served. Prizes were won, Mr. James Price and Mrs. A. D. Knowlton carrying off the honors for having scored the most games. Dr. Stockham and Mrs. Franks received the consolation prizes.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fuller, Mrs. Dr. J. D. Campbell, Mrs. J. P. Gaskill, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Reason, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nesbitt, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. E. Price, Mr. and Mrs. John Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Knowlton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Stockham, Dr. and Mrs. T. O. Duckworth, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Whitney, Mrs. J. L. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Caffey, Mr. Milton L. Lee, Mr. Emery Condict, Mr. J. Frank Squire, Mrs. Katherine Burke, Mrs. Pitcher Mrs. Abbie Sawyer, Mrs. George Sawyer, Miss Kate Pritchett and Miss Pearl Huntsman.

A very delightful whist party was that given by Mrs. S. F. Whitney Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Harry Clark of Salt Lake City. Five tables were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Harry Clark and Mrs. A. A. Carman. The following were the guests:

Mrs. E. E. Fuller, A. D. Knowlton, A. A. Carman, S. B. Eubanks, J. P. Gaskill, C. A. Thompson, Jesse Simmons, J. L. Bowman, X. B. Farrington, Mattingly, Abbie J. Sawyer, Geo. O. Sawyer, John R. Cook, Lewis H. Reason, J. A. Clark, J. A. Nesbitt, E. A. Hodges, James E. Price, John Ewing, W. W. Stockham and Miss Kate Pritchett.
